LHSA Conference Dublin 2022
Visit To Photo Museum of Ireland | Meeting House Square 6pm
Thursday 13th October 2022

The Museum is located at Meeting House Square in the Temple Bar area of Dublin D02 X406. Older maps may show it under its former title, Gallery of Photography, Ireland

<https://photomuseumireland.ie>

The museum building looks large from the outside, but inside it is relatively small and the main visitor floors include a bookshop floor and two exhibition floors, the upper one including a balcony. There will be no need to 'dress up' for the event. It will be 'go as you are'.

The current exhibition is In Our Own Image: Photography and the Social Gaze.

<https://photomuseumireland.ie/in-our-own-image-the-social-gaze>

The latest chapter of Photo Museum Ireland's year-long In Our Own Image exhibition programme, Photography & the Social Gaze is a landmark survey which undertakes a critical reframing of the way Irish life has been represented through photography. It explores how photographers have used their medium to reflect on immense social change in Ireland over recent decades.

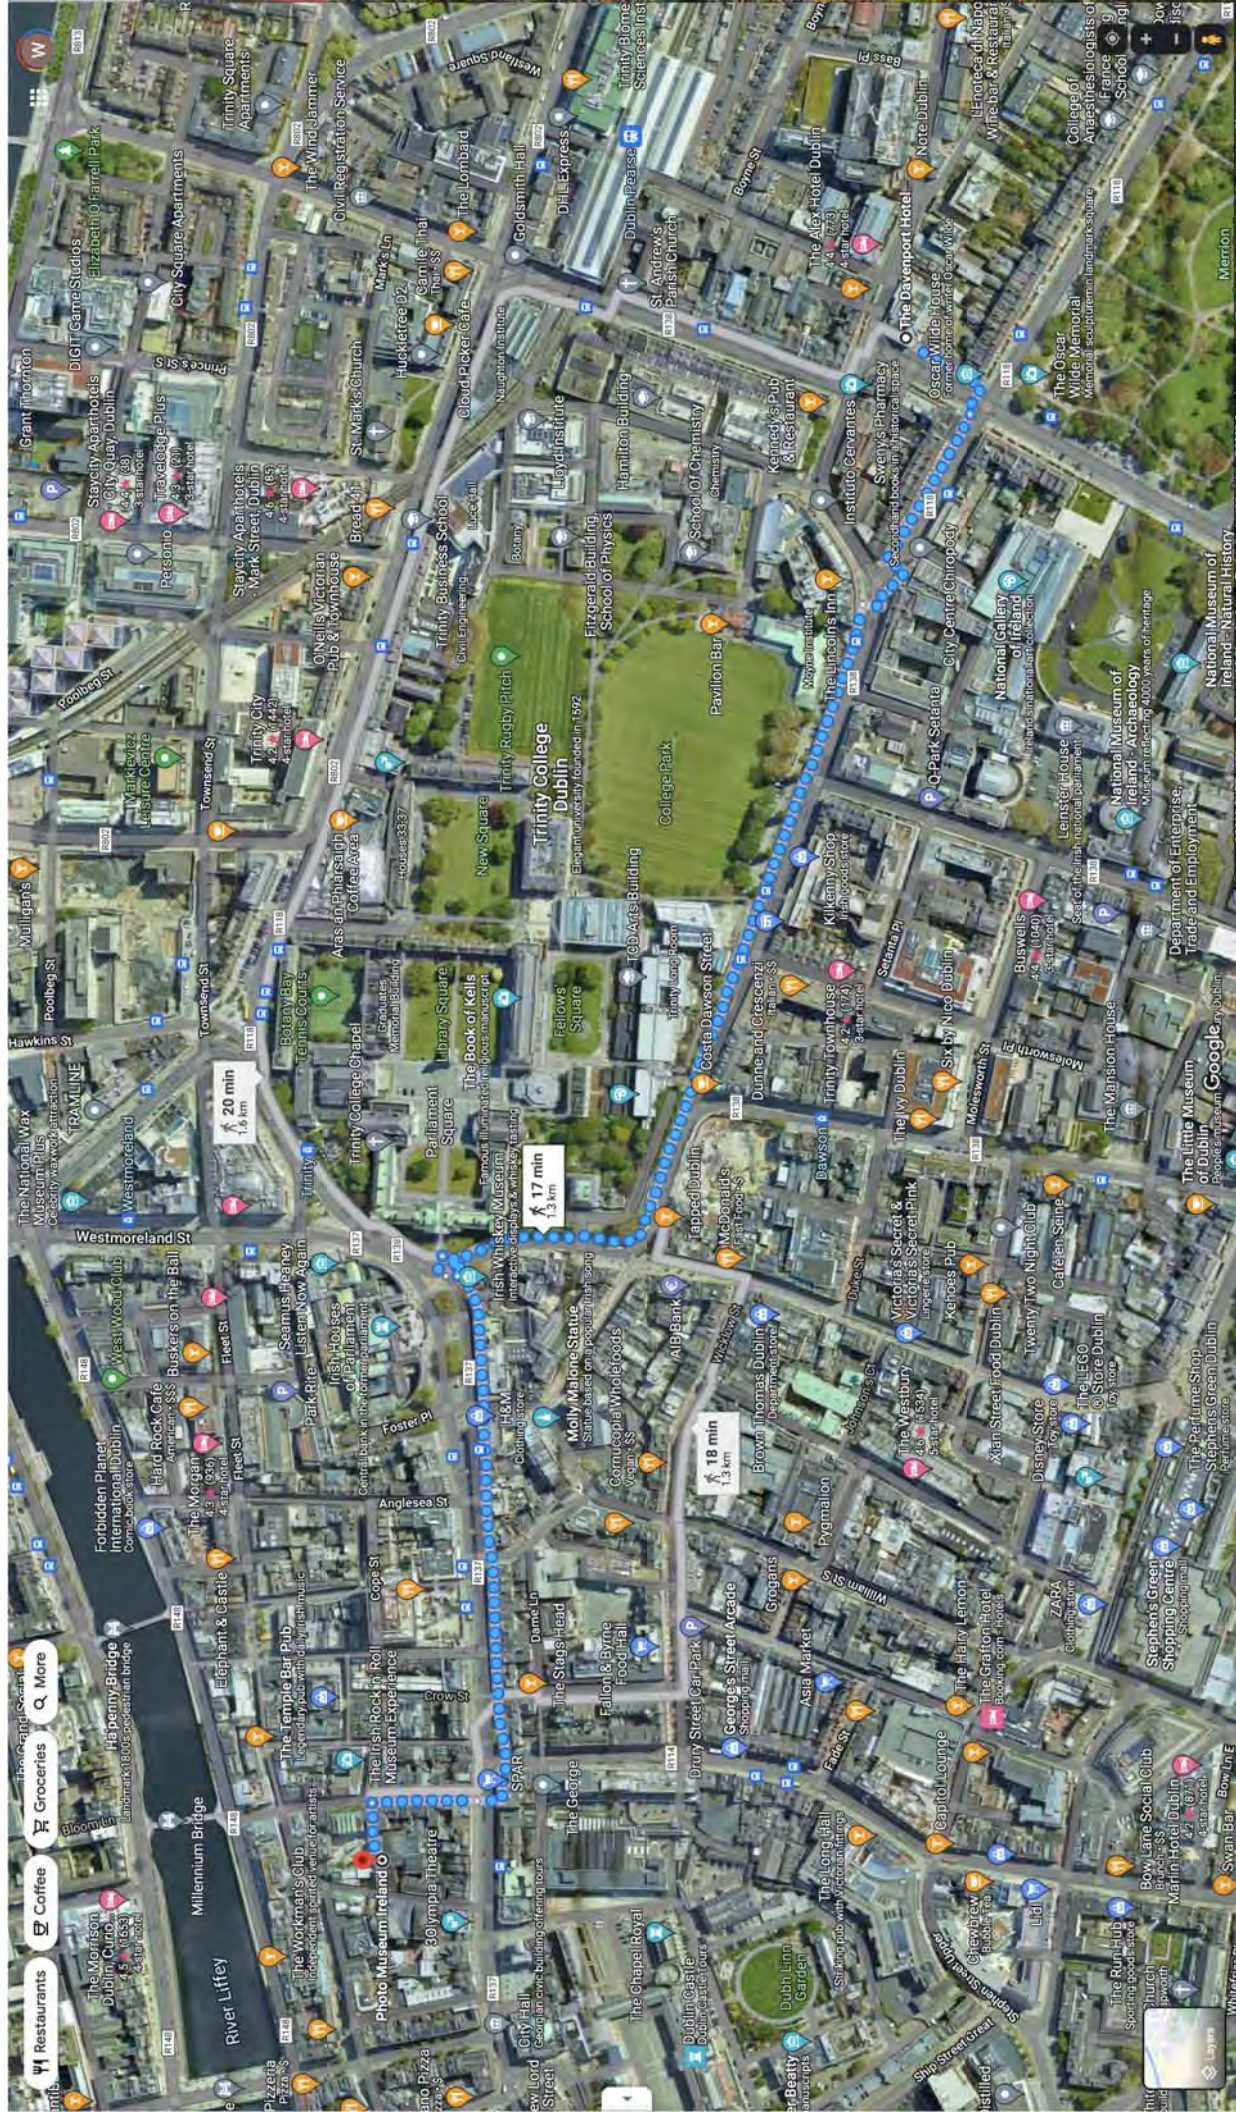

There will be a curator's talk about the exhibition and wine will be served.

In addition there will be an interview with Irish photographer Tony O'Shea about his work. Tony is a long time user of Leica cameras. His most recent book is 'The Light of Day'.

LHSA – International Leica Society
Themes for Dublin Photo Walk on the afternoon of Friday 14th October

The concept here is that there will be 5 different themes to be captured photographically in the areas of Dublin close to the Conference Hotel (Davenport Hotel, Lower Merrion Street, Dublin). William Fagan, the Conference Chair, will give instructions, hints etc. to those who are participating before they leave the hotel at 2:15 pm on 14th October

William will not participate in the walk, but he will act as a judge of the extent to which each of the themes given have been captured. Attendees will have until the end of October to submit their entries of one image per theme. Please submit your entries using this link <https://forms.gle/g57T89q1U3X5e45t9>

William, as judge, will not know the identities of any of the entrants.

There will be a prize of a special edition LHSA Rock n Roll Strap for the photo which best captures each of the themes as below:

- Find a Bar of Lemon Soap
- Be a Georgian
- Win an Oscar
- Get a Trinity Education
- Capture Cartier Bresson's Birds

And for a special bonus prize (unlikely to be won!) Find Bono's Sheep

Entrants may only win the prize for one theme, but entering for more than one theme will increase the chance of winning a prize.

One final rule: Have fun doing this.
